COMMITTEE: CONSTITUTION OF:

9.1 The Union shall be governed and its affairs and activities be administered by a Committee acting under the authority conveyed to it by this Constitution or by any mandate granted to it by the Union in general meeting, which Committee is constituted as follows:

9.1.1 an elected Executive Committee; and

9.1.2 a Council of Delegates representing the member clubs of the Union.

- 9.2 The Executive Committee shall consist of 10 (ten) elected members of which at any given time no less than 3 (three) shall be of the same gender. They shall hold office for a period of 2 (two) years and half of whom shall retire in alternate years. For the purposes of the election of the first Executive Committee the Candidates who receive the most votes shall serve on the Executive Committee for a period of 2 (two) years and the 5 (five) with the lesser number of votes for a period of 1 (one) year. In the event of 6 (six) positions being available on the Executive Committee, the five (5) Candidates who receive the most votes shall serve on the Executive Committee for a period of 2 (two) years and the candidate who receives the lesser number of votes for a period of 1 (one) year. The Chairperson of this Annual General Meeting shall have a casting vote besides a deliberative vote. An elected member shall retire immediately after the Annual General Meeting held at the expiration of this period of office and shall be eligible for re-election without nomination.
- 9.3 Candidates for election to the Executive Committee must be proposed in writing by a golf member of a member club and seconded in writing by a another golf member of a club and the candidates must signify their acceptance of the proposal in writing on the nomination form. Nominations must reach the Honorary Secretary at least 21 (twenty-one) days prior to the Annual General Meeting. The election of Executive Committee members shall only take place at the Annual General Meeting. The Honorary Secretary shall advise all member clubs of the names of nominees received, not less than 14 (fourteen) days before the Annual General Meeting. The above provisions with regard to the proposal and seconding of candidates shall not apply to the nominations made by the Union's Junior Golf sub-committee. The nominees must however signify their acceptance of their nomination.
- 9.4 In the event of a vacancy occurring on the Executive Committee for whatever reason, the Executive Committee shall be entitled to co-opt any person to fill such vacancy for the remaining period of office of the person in whose stead such co-option is done.

- 9.5 The Executive Committee shall be entitled to co-opt not more than 1 (one) person to serve on the Executive Committee for a period of not exceeding 2 (two) years if the Executive Committee is of the opinion that such co-option is expedient in the interest of golf in the area of the Union. Such co-opted member shall be entitled to attend the meetings of the Executive Committee and to vote thereat but shall not qualify for Gauteng North Colours as provided for in Sub-Clause 13.4.2.
- 9.6 A member of the Executive Committee must be a member in good standing of a member club of the Union.
- 9.7 The Council of Delegates shall comprise representatives of the member clubs made up as follows and whose names and addresses shall be furnished to the Honorary Secretary of the Union.
- 9.7.1 2 (two) representatives of member clubs having 500 (five hundred) or more golf members affiliated to the Union.
- 9.7.2 1 (one) representative of member clubs having less than 500 (five hundred) golf members affiliate to the Union.
- 9.8 Immediately after each Annual General Meeting the Executive Committee shall elect a President, 2 (two) Vice Presidents, one of each gender, a Secretary, a Treasurer and members to represent the Union on the South African Golf Association and Womens Golf South Africa from its members who shall hold office until the immediately following Annual General Meeting unless a vacancy occurs prior to such meeting in which event the Executive Committee may elect another member of the Executive Committee to fill such vacancy for the remaining period.
- 9.9 Immediately after each Annual General Meeting the President shall, subject to Sub Clause 9.8, supra, allocate such portfolios to the members of the Executive Committee as deemed fit.

- 9.10 A member of the Council of Delegates may appoint an alternate with full voting rights to represent the Club at meetings but no member of the Executive Committee shall be entitled to delegate his office under the provisions of this sub-clause or to appoint an alternate.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF COMMITTEE:

- 10.1 The Committee has the power to do all things necessary to carry out and promote the objects of the Union subject to the conditions contained in this Constitution. Without derogating from the generality hereof the Committee shall in particular have the following powers and duties:
